

Spectrum Film Club Access Guide

The Spectrum Film Club meets at Kilmardinny House in Bearsden.

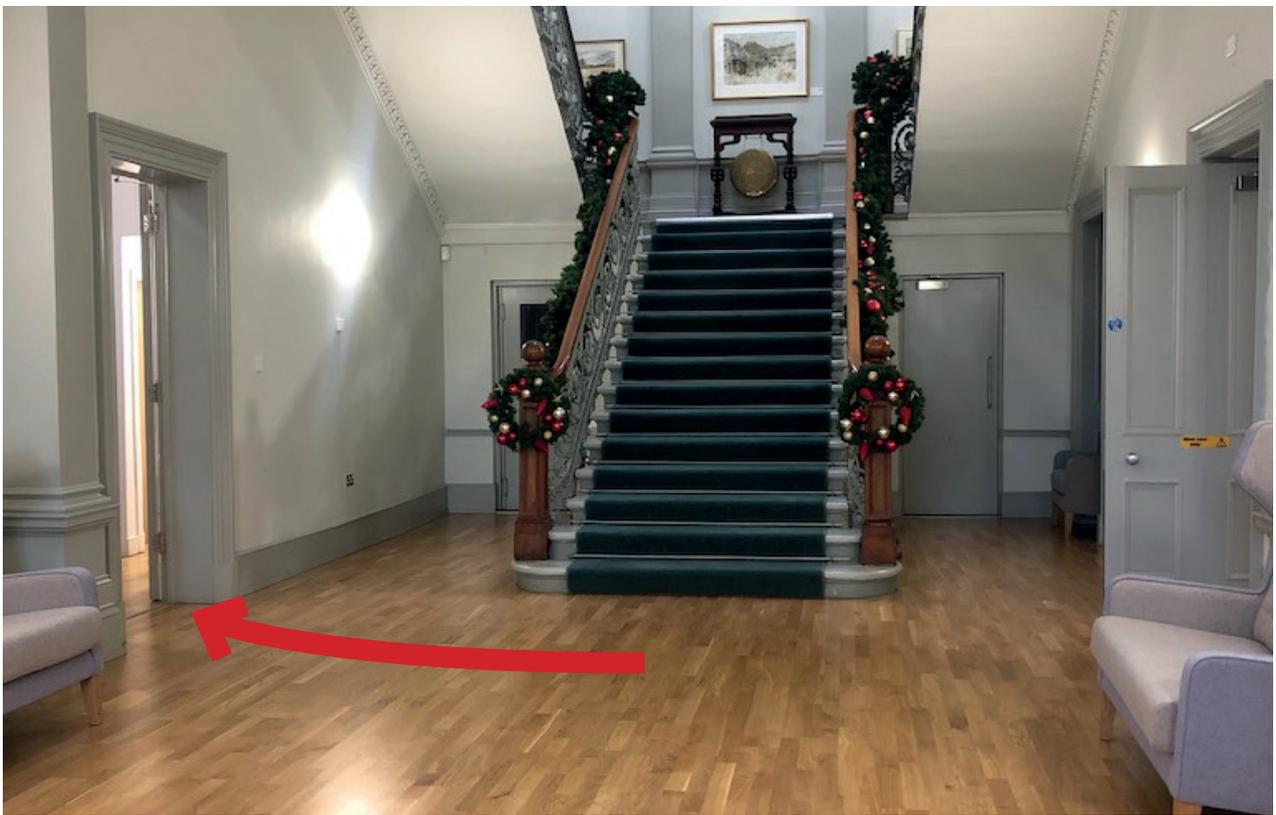

When you arrive, walk through the main door at the front of the building.

There are automatic doors on your left.
Press the square 'PRESS TO OPEN' button.

Walk up to the ticket table on your right.

The toilets are on your left next to the stairs. -
There are male, female and accessible toilets.

You should tell the staff your name and how many tickets you reserved.

You should pay them £4 for each of your tickets (we don't accept card payments).

You can then take your seat in the hall.

If you need any help during the film you can ask the staff.

The staff are wearing bright yellow jackets.

If you need some quiet space during the film you can ask to sit in the 'breakout room' for as long as you need to.

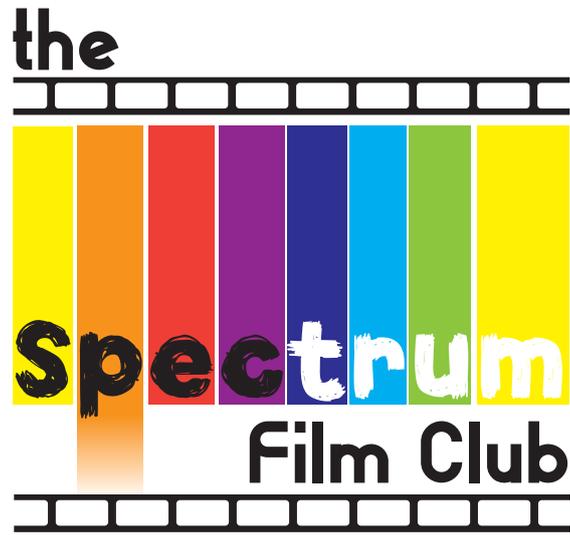

Once the film has finished please put your rubbish in the bin.

The staff will show you where to leave. It is by the same door that you came in.

Please let the staff know if you have any problems getting home

Thank you for coming to the Spectrum Film Club
