HOW TO TELL US

Applicants can advise the Revenues and Benefits Team of changes on the telephone, but this call must be followed by written confirmation.

This can be done by completing a change in circumstances form, or by putting the details of the change in writing and sending them by post, email or fax.

Our contact details are given at the bottom of this page. Please contact us for advice if you are not sure if you should tell us about any change.

WHAT HAPPENS IF YOU DON'T TELL US

Even if you do not have all information or evidence that relates to the change in circumstances you should still tell us about the change immediately.

Failure to report a change in your circumstances when it happens could mean you lose benefit or reduction you may have been entitled to, or are overpaid benefit or reduction you will have to pay back. You may also face legal action.

If you have a change in your circumstances which would give you MORE benefit or reduction and you do not tell us within a month, any change will normally only be made from the Monday following the date that the change is reported. If the change would give you LESS benefit or reduction, the change will be amended from the actual date of the change.
