

Scotland's ePlanning service is moving in January 2016

www.ePlanning.scot

- New ePlanning portal
- New expanding service
- Familiar user experience
- And a secure future for the ePlanning service

- Starting 13th January 2016

Featuring

- Online application submission
- Simple to use, consistent forms
- Swift delivery to your planning authority
- Saving you time and money every time you apply

What's new?

- New location plan service
- Increased time-saving functionality for planning authorities
- Phase 1 of an expanded online service, within the new eDevelopment.scot suite
- eBuilding Standards.scot coming Summer 2016
- Single registration across new portals

Planning.scot

Key Dates

13th January 2016: launch of ePlanning.scot

Dual running period - both services operating

17th March 2016: closure of eplanning.scotland.gov.uk

Transitional Arrangements

From 13th January 2016

ePlanning.scot

- All new applications/drafts created on this new portal
- Register on first use

ePlanning.scotland.gov.uk (old portal)

- Reduced service - existing drafts can still be completed and submitted
- Will be offline for about 1 hour to implement changes

17th March 2016

ePlanning.scotland.gov.uk

- portal closed - drafts need to be completed before this date

Contact Us

Single support centre for both portals

0131 244 1450

eplanningsupport@gov.scot

Coming next: Summer 2016
Online applications for building warrants and associated submissions

 Building
Standards.scot

 Development.scot