

Boundary Commission for Scotland PUBLIC CONSULTATION

2018 Review of UK Parliament Constituencies - Revised Proposals

We are undertaking a further 8 week period of public consultation on our revised proposals for UK Parliament constituencies in Scotland.

- The legislation governing this review is the Parliamentary Constituencies Act 1986 (as amended).
- UK Parliament constituencies are being reduced from 650 to 600.
- A constituency must be no larger than 13,000 km².
- Constituencies must have between 71,031 - 78,507 electors, unless they are larger than 12,000 km² when they can have fewer electors.
- 2 Scottish island constituencies are set as Na h-Eileanan Siar and Orkney and Shetland.
- Scotland will have 53 in place of the current 59 constituencies.

The proposed constituency comprises: West Dunbartonshire council area and part of East Dunbartonshire ward 2 (Bearsden North) where the boundary follows Drymen Road and Stockiemuir Road. From our Initial Proposals, the constituency boundary is changed by Bearsden and Craigton (north of Milngavie). The constituency name is changed from West Dunbartonshire and Bearsden North.

Tell us what you think of our proposals by 11 December 2017.
