

Objection reference	Objection or area of objection	it is an objection to TP/ED/26/0104 OR why it	Relevant Legislation or Guidance
536	Resilience and Adaptation	hydroclimatic volatility underscores the urgent need	Development must be supported by nature-based
537	Staregy 1,2,3and 4 does not	by Kaya are inadequate. Water is hitting the ground	UK Under 2°C and 4°C Warming Y. He1 , D. Manful1, N.
538	leads to Breach of Statutory	Precautionary Principle to environmental decision-	(Continuity) (Scotland) Act 2021: Section 13(1)
539	this leads to a Breach of	Precautionary Principle to environmental decision-	safety and climate resilience.
540	Arboricultural assesment
541	misleading claims in the	provides a "net benefit arboriculturally". This is	contribute to the enhancement of biodiversity, not
542	Mitigation: Relying on a	AIA relies entirely on compensatory planting at the	Compensatory planting must be guaranteed and
544	Statutory Public Consultation	ouncil explicitly stated to the public that the project de	Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations
545	Statutory Public Consultation	ouncil explicitly stated to the public that the project de	Management): Requires all environmental and
547	Diligence in Application	TP/ED/26/0104 to UPRN 000132048009, which is	Management Procedure) (Scotland) Regulations
552	Objection or area of objection	it is an objection to TP_ED_26_0341 OR why it
553	Screening of Myrtle Avenue	Avenue (MA) site was issued by planning officers who	Assessment) (Scotland) Regulations 2017
554	Screening of Myrtle Avenue	Avenue (MA) site was issued by planning officers who	Reasonableness: Renders delegated official
555	Screening of Myrtle Avenue	EIA Screening Opinion for the Myrtle Avenue (MA)	Assessment) (Scotland) Regulations 2017
556	Screening of Myrtle Avenue	EIA Screening Opinion for the Myrtle Avenue (MA)	public concern regarding verifiable environmental