Comment Reasons:

Comment: The park in this case is one that I frequently use to walk after being at the gym and swimming and I enjoy taking pictures of various different wildlife it conserves. I'm actually disgusted as I'm well aware the reason not to build on the existing ground is that it has far more value for selling the land for housing. And let's be honest all councils are ever concerned about is money and how to minimize spending and make more. Regardless of the long term issues it will create.
